- In order to fulfill the "Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information" standard under the Inland Revenue Ordinance, for customers who have not provide a tax identification number ("TIN") or self-certification form, the Bank is required to collect "Self-Certification form" from customer for completeness of tax residency information. If you have not provided TIN to the Bank for all of your tax residences, or your circumstances have changed, please download the "Self-Certification Form" from the Bank's website (BOC website Home> More> Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information), and return the duly completed form to any of our branches.
- BOCHK has upgraded the FPS QR Code Collection service to support Hong Kong Thailand cross-border FPS payment service. BOCHK FPS merchants can automatically enjoy the upgraded service and no additional application or update of the current FPS QR code system is required. With effective 4th December 2023, Thai tourists can make HKD payment to Merchants by scanning QR code and Merchants will receive real time payment notifications. The relevant service terms and conditions have been revised accordingly. For details, please refer to BOCHK's website.
