BOCHK provides you with user-friendly integrated business banking accounts and a complete suite of business solutions to enhance the daily operational efficiency and cost effectiveness of your business. Our corporate internet banking (iGTB NET), corporate mobile banking (iGTB MOBILE) and our new ERP Cloud Services offer your business a one-stop digital tool to manage your day-to-day business without the need to visit branches and hence to reduce the counter transaction fee. Please visit our website for more information (BOCHK website > SME in One > Account Opening > Business Integrated Account > Day-to-day banking).

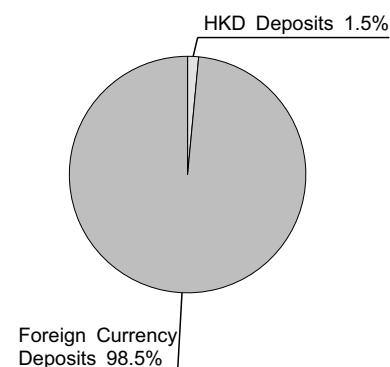

In order to fulfill the "Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information" ("AEOI") standard under the Inland Revenue Ordinance, for customers who have not provided a tax identification number ("TIN") or self-certification form, the Bank is required to collect a "self-certification form" from customers for completeness of tax residency information. If customers have not provided TIN to the Bank for all tax residences, or circumstances have changed, please download the "Self-Certification Form" from the Bank's website (BOC website Home > More > Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information), and return the duly completed form to any of our branches within 30 days of this message.
